Proactive Problem Solving

Disruptions don't challenge our sourcing capabilities. You get a partner who's 10 steps ahead.

We don't just fill orders - we unblock bottlenecks, reduce downtime, and keep patient care moving.

When your primary supplier falls short, Cato steps in.

Our focus is on being fast, reliable, agile, and resourceful when it matters most.

As one of our clients, the Head of Supply Chain at a large Midwest IDN, shared :

We really appreciate your partnership.
Thanks to the orders we've placed with you & your support, we haven't had to cancel a single surgical case .
